Moderately $\frac{\text{d}}{\text{s}} = 100$

1. Bad news is come to town. bad news is carried. Some

2. Love, here’s a ring of gold, long years I’ve kept it.
Madame, it’s for your sake, will you accept it?
When you the posy read, pray think on the giver.
Madame, remember me, for I’m undone forever.

3. Then away went this brave youth, and embarked all on the ocean,
To free America was his intention.
He landed in Quebec with all his party,
The city to attack, being brave and hearty.

4. He drew his army up in lines so pretty
On the Plains of Abraham back of the city.
At a distance from the town where the French would meet him,
In double numbers, who resolved to beat him.

5. Montcalm and this brave youth together walk’ed,
Between two armies they like brothers talk’ed.
Till each one took his post and did retire.
It was then these numerous hosts commenced their fire.

6. Little did he think death was so near him.
[one line missing]
When shot down from his horse was this our hero.
We’ll long lament his loss in tears of sorrow.

7. He rais’ed up his head where the cannons did rattle,
And to his aide he said, “How goes the battle?”
His aide-de-camp replied, “It’s ending in our favor.”
“Then,” says this brave youth, “I quit this earth with pleasure.”
