Bert LaFountain's Packard

Briskly ♩ = 100

C   G⁷

1. 'Twas on a Sun - day morn - ing, I head ed for the north, The
2. Well I load - ed her with li - quor and I stocked her with wine and ale; To
3. The troop - ers and the im-mi- gra-tion- ers, to them I paid no heed; I
4. I saw the troop - ers' bar-ri - er and a car a - cross the road. I road I of - ten trav - eled while rid - ing back and forth. I get a - cross the bor - der I knew I must not fail. But they I was roll - ing eight - y and put-ting on___ the speed. I was quick - ly left the wheel,___ the Pack-ard and___ the load. I'm crossed the old St. Law - rence, go - ing straight to Mont - re - al With sig - naled me with flash - lights and___ or - dered me to halt; But I go - ing straight through Mer - rill and___ head-ed__ for Ma - lone When wait - ing for my tri - al which__ is to come this fall; It's

C

F   G⁷

C

Bert La - Foun - tain's Pack - ard for a load of al - co - hol.___
tore right by the cus- toms house with Le - Foun - tain's al - co - hol.___
word___ got a - head of me; 'twas__ by a tel - e - phone__ now I'm out on bail,___ and I know I lost it all.

* This note is sung as a 'C' in the first verse only; thereafter, start on a 'G'.

 The penultimate note is sung as a 'D' in the last verse only.